

FRANK ORENSTEIN, CHAIRMAN

Frank Orenstein is Chairman of the Hospitality Investors Group, LLC.

Frank founded Hospitality Investors Group after a storied and accomplished career tenure in hospitality development.

Frank was previously Executive VP of Development for Four Seasons Hotels where he assisted in creating the original Four Seasons concept and developed the first Four Seasons properties in the United States, Canada, and Europe. During his career, he has developed many hotels worldwide and provided strategic advice and guidance to major international corporations.

Frank was also the co-founder of Park Plaza/Park Inns Hotels and Resorts, and along with his partner, Hicks Muse and Olympus Real Estate, expanded the portfolio and eventually sold the company to Radisson Hotels Worldwide.

Over the years, HiG has grown its capabilities and expanded due to demand. Frank has led its evolution and been at the forefront of HiG's mission to offer quality service, global expertise, and ensure optimum success of its' key partnerships. Frank is a graduate of Queens University Law School and currently resides in Palm Beach, Florida.